Prayer of confession:

Merciful God, you love justice, yet we persist in wrongdoing and evil. You have given us the words of the prophets and the Word made flesh in Jesus, yet we ignore and disobey what we have heard from you. You have sent the light into the world, yet we have loved darkness rather than the light. Forgive us. Restore us. Till and tend us as your garden until righteousness and praise spring up, for the sake of Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.

Then it was said among the nations,
"The Lord has done great things for them."

The Lord has done great things for us, and we rejoiced!

Restore our fortunes O Lord, like the watercourses in the Negeb. May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.

Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves.

Welcome visitors and friends! May you sense God's presence at BCMC. Personal hearing devices are at the north sanctuary entrance. The nursery at rear of sanctuary is available during worship for families with infants and toddlers. Following Time with Children, children receive activity bags to use during worship (return to baskets at the entrance as you leave). We invite members and visitors to fill out welcome/prayer cards in pew racks and place them in the offering plates for response by pastoral staff.

Keep Awake! is the theme for worship at BCMC during Advent. During this season we await and celebrate the coming of Christ. Advent banners mark our movement through Advent. Created by Robert Regier, they present a gradual crescendo of light and color, providing possibilities for insight, discovery and renewal. Reflection questions related to each Sunday's sermon will be posted on the BCMC website and listed in the bulletin for conversation in Sunday school or for personal reflection during the week. Today's questions: How do you define joy? Where do you see - or seek - God's good news of restoration and renewal? How might we at BCMC rejoice together in a way that displays God's glory?

Women's Fellowship of BCMC will have a Christmas program Tues., Dec. 16, 7 p.m., in the sanctuary with music provided by Karen Loucks, Vada Snider and Bethany Schrag followed by a Christmas Tea in Fellowship Hall. All women are invited to attend.

The BCMC winter congregational meeting will take place on Sun., Jan. 25, at 12:45 p.m. following a soup luncheon served by Senior High youth as a fundraiser. In order to plan agenda for the congregational meeting, the Board asks committees and commissions to provide a written motion or proposal for any topic they would like considered. This is also true for any member of the congregation who may want to make a motion. If the Board knows about your plans ahead of time it makes it easier to provide the congregation with accurate wording of motions, and to plan an agenda. The Board will review these requests and determine the congregational meeting agenda at the Jan. 8 Board meeting. Send any proposals, or motions to the church office or to me. Thank You. ~ Jim Robb, BCMC Moderator

Senior High Youth are requesting contributions for our first annual Christmas party with the children at the Harvey County Homeless Shelter on Dec. 21. We will be baking cookies with the children and hope to leave them with some simple gifts. HCHS often provides shelter for 5–10 children. The Director of HCHS, James Wilson, is enthusiastic and supportive of this idea. Monetary contributions are being accepted at the table in the back of the sanctuary. Any contributions exceeding expenses will be donated to the Harvey County Homeless Shelter.
