Today is the fourth Sunday in Lent, a season of spiritual renewal leading to Easter. Services during Lent draw on resources from Mennonite Church USA: Upside Down & Inside Out. God meets us where we are and loves us as we are – yet does not stop there, but turns our understanding upside down and inside-out. Each Sunday, we move beyond a “First Look” at scripture to consider a “Second Look.” Suggestions are given to extend our encounter with scripture beyond Sunday worship. This week, What would it mean for you to live deeper in tune to the divine reality?

Welcome visitors and friends! May you sense God's presence at BCMC. Personal hearing devices are at the north sanctuary entrance. The nursery at rear of sanctuary is available during worship for families with infants and toddlers. Following Time with Children, children receive activity bags to use during worship (return to baskets at the entrance as you leave). We invite members and visitors to fill out welcome/prayer cards in pew racks and place them in the offering plates for response by pastoral staff.

Are you curious about being a Senior High youth sponsor? Please contact John Tyson for further conversation.

Denn alles fleisch from The Requiem by Brahms

Denn alles Fleisch ist wie Gras
Und alle Herrlichkeit des Menschen
wie des Grases Blumen.
Das Gras ist verdorret
und die Blume abgefallen.

For all flesh is as grass
and all the glory of man
As the flower of grass.
The grass withereth,
and the flower thereof
falleth away. 1 Peter 1:24

So seid nun geduldig, lieber Brüder,
Bis auf die Zukunft des Herrn.
Siehe, ein Ackermann wart
Auf die köstliche Frucht der Erde
Und ist geduldig darüber.
Bis er empfahe den Morgenregen und Abendregen.

Be patient, therefore, brethren,
Unto the coming of the Lord.
Behold, the husbandman waiteth
for the precious fruit of the earth,
And hath long patience for it,
Until he receives
the early and latter rain.

James 5:7

In the first movement of his requiem, Brahms drew on the image of a farmer planting in tears and then, reaping in joy. He returns to the image of the land in the second movement, drawing the listener's intellect to the frailty of creation, its transient nature, its withering and fading. He contrasts this seasonal change with the patience of the farmer, waiting for the coming of the rain and for the precious fruit that will spring from the earth. Brahms surrounds this patience with the austere sound of unison voices lamenting the flower and grass fading away.

During a time of unexpected problems, I have been supported by all of you. Thank you for your prayers, your visits, good food, and plants. I'm home and doing well. ~ Lois Deckert
