Prayer of confession

Are you sure about what you're doing, God?

Why crucifixion after the acclaim of the crowd? Disaster seems like a bad way to make your kingdom come.

We wish your ways were clear and simple, that the good were rewarded and the evil punished.

That, at least would make more sense, than choosing what should be clearly rejected.

Help us take another look;

Show us how you want us to see.

UPSIDE DOWN AND INSIDE OUT

Words of assurance (from Psalm 118):

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the Lord's doing.

The Lord has become our salvation.

God's steadfast love endures forever.

Sermon Lay down your branches John Tyson

SECOND LOOK

Listening again Mark 11:1-11; Phil. 2:5-11 HWB 855

Call to commitment:

God turns things upside down and inside out, choosing what we rejected as the centerpiece of the kingdom.

God, we will look to you as the arbiter of faithful living in an uncertain world.

Worship music O sacred head now wounded arr. Sherman
Youth Bells; Vada Snider, director; Rebecca Schloneger, violin

Call to worship: Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29

O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his steadfast love endures forever!

Let Israel say, "His steadfast love endures forever."

Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD.

This is the gate of the LORD;

the righteous shall enter through it.

I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation. The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day that the LORD has made;

let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Save us, we beseech you, O LORD!

O LORD, we beseech you, give us success!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD.

We bless you from the house of the LORD.

The LORD is God, and he has given us light. Bind the festal procession with branches, up to the horns of the altar.

You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;
you are my God, I will extol you.

O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever.

Today is Palm Sunday, transitioning from the season of Lent into Holy Week. Services during Lent have drawn on resources from Mennonite Church USA: Upside Down & Inside Out. God meets us where we are and loves us as we are – yet does not stop there, but turns our understanding upside down and inside-out. Each Sunday, we move beyond a "First Look" at scripture to consider a "Second Look." Suggestions are given to extend our encounter with scripture beyond Sunday worship. This week, consider: What expectations do we have for our relationship with God? How do these expectations impact our personal lives and the life of our congregation?

Welcome visitors and friends! May you sense God's presence at BCMC. Personal hearing devices are at the north sanctuary entrance. The nursery at rear of sanctuary is available during worship for families with infants and toddlers. Following Time with Children, children receive activity bags to use during worship (return to baskets at the entrance as you leave). We invite members and visitors to fill out welcome/prayer cards in pew racks and place them in the offering plates for response by pastoral staff.

Dear Friends at Bethel College Mennonite Church, thank you so much for welcoming us into your beautiful church to say goodbye to my dear mother, Marjorie Stucky, Jan. 31. There are no words to fully describe how much we appreciated your genuine kindness and welcoming spirit during this difficult time. We were so grateful to the pastors and administration for your assistance and comfort before and during the service; to the funeral committee for putting together and serving a wonderful meal for a time of fellowship, memories, and celebration of Mom's life; to the janitorial service for your compassion and kind words; and we will treasure the recording of the service in your beautiful church. We felt God's peace there and will always remember your kindness. Many thanks to each of you.
~ Sincerely, Jo, Brian, and Aaron Suderman, Gardiner, Montana
