

Prayer Requests

Mennonite Mission Network: Praise God for Israel College of the Bible, “the first Hebrew-language Bible college since the days of the disciples,” says a Mennonite Mission Network professor. Pray that the Arab Christian and Messianic Jewish students who study together will also be peace-builders in the Middle East.

Western District Conference: Pray for God’s guidance for the Church Planting Commission, Stewardship Commission, and Executive Board as they each meet this week to plan for the work of WDC.

This congregation: Pray for the new members joining BCMC today. May this community of faith grow in vibrancy and faithfulness.

To request prayer or a visit, or if a family member is hospitalized, please contact the church office or a pastor so that visits and prayer support can be offered. Names of people receiving medical care are printed in the BCMC bulletin only by permission of the patient or a guardian/family-member. This is part of the caring network at BCMC, which includes support among members of Sunday school classes and small groups, as well as the Prayer Network, Visitation Team, and Caring Fund sponsored by Deacon Commission.

Bethel College Mennonite Church welcomes into fellowship and membership all persons who confess faith in Jesus Christ, without regard to their race, ethnic background, gender, age, sexual orientation, education, ability, and other factors which give rise to discrimination and marginalization.

Faith Statements – Reception into Membership at BCMC
November 8, 2015

Brad Born (transferring from Shalom Mennonite Church, Newton)

I was baptized at 13 years of age, too early to have developed a fully reflective faith, but not too early to have understood and admired how Christian faith had prompted my parents to perform ten years of missionary service in southern Brazil. Those childhood years as a pastor's kid and missionary kid were highly formative, combining a devout piety at home and in Portuguese-speaking churches with immersion in cross-cultural education at an international school and through close friendships with Brazilian neighbors. What my parents modeled already then, and what I found attractive about Christian faith, was its capacity to foster compassion for others and engagement with the wider world. In my teens and college years (at Tabor and Bethel colleges) I questioned and abandoned much of the doctrine that accompanied the evangelical style of worship from my childhood, but I never scorned it, having witnessed how it had inspired people to enact lives of Christian service and express Christ's love for others. Following college, my wife and I spent ten years in Lawrence, Kansas, where our active membership in the Lawrence Mennonite Church provided further faith development. We then moved to Newton in 1995 when I took a faculty position at Bethel College, and we soon transferred our membership from Lawrence Mennonite to Shalom Mennonite, which was a very welcoming and supportive congregation, especially well-suited to that stage of our life raising children. Recently having reached another transition point, with our youngest child leaving home to begin his freshman year at Bethel College, we have been exploring making a church change, and upon visiting Bethel College Mennonite Church throughout the late spring and summer months, we are ready to make this our new church home.

Diane Born (transferring from Shalom Mennonite Church, Newton)

As a child, I attended a Mennonite Brethren church in southwestern Kansas with my family. When I was a young teen, I was baptized and joined the church. As an adult, I have been active in Mennonite congregations where we have lived. I look forward to being a member of the Bethel College Mennonite Church joining others in worship and striving to live faithfully in the local community and world.

Esther Kreider Eash (transferring from Hope Mennonite Church, Wichita)

I grew up surrounded and nurtured by a strong faith community—an intertwining of family, friends, & church. The call to follow Christ, and in particular, Anabaptism resulted in my baptism at First Mennonite Church (Bluffton, OH) in May 1966 by Pastor Jacob Friesen.

My church homes have taken me from General Conference to Mennonite Conference and to Mennonite Conference USA: at First Mennonite Church (Bluffton) I participated in youth leadership; at West Union Mennonite (IA) I became active in wider congregational activities, and at Hope Mennonite Church (Wichita) my involvement expanded into leadership roles with Worship Commission and the Pastoral Congregation Relations Committee, frequent worship leading, and coordination of collaborative and large-scale visuals to support and enhance the worship experience.

At BCMC, I look forward to making new friends and finding opportunities to connect and serve.

William Eash (transferring from Hope Mennonite Church, Wichita)

I grew up in “Old Mennonite” congregations in Archbold, OH and Mt Gilead, OH, was baptized at Gilead Mennonite Church, and studied at Bluffton, a “General Conference” Mennonite college. Over the course of my faith journey, I have participated or been employed in Methodist, Presbyterian and Catholic churches. I found these other faith experiences stimulating, but it is in the Mennonite church that I continue to find a sense of community--a community committed to a faith tradition, a community struggling with its identity, a community working to define itself in the 21st century. During the two years I have been at BCMC, I have been fascinated by encounters with artists, theologians, pastors, former professors, professional musicians, business people, people with gifts in technology, lawyers, lawn care providers, mission workers, etc. I like this diversity. In addition, I have been intrigued with the church’s commitment to music, to outreach, to fostering community. I look forward to becoming a more active participant in this mission.

Brad Kohlman (transferring from Hope Mennonite Church, Wichita)

BCMC is a place where I feel both comfortable and challenged. I know it is a church and congregation in which I will grow spiritually. I am drawn by their commitment to peace, Christian formation, and a welcoming, inclusive community. I am looking forward to being part of such a loving church family.

Megan Kohlman (transferring from Hope Mennonite Church, Wichita)

BCMC is a congregation with a strong commitment to social justice, Christian formation, and being community. I am grateful for the ways in which we have already been welcomed into this congregation, and I am looking forward to participating in this community.

Kathryn Simmons (transferring from Rainbow Mennonite Church, Kansas City)

I first attended BCMC in 1960, when my family moved to North Newton. In June 1966 I was baptized by Pastor Russell Mast. In December 1972, I married Steve Simmons at BCMC. My father, Esko Loewen (BCMC pastor from 1968-77) officiated and my grandfather, Lester Hostetler, (also a former BCMC pastor & editor of several Mennonite hymn books) giving the sermon. As we moved around the Midwest, Steve & I have been active members in several churches, most recently Rainbow Mennonite Church, Kansas City, KS. I have enjoyed returning to my roots & reconnecting with people from my childhood. I look forward to fully supporting BCMC.

Peggy Souder (transferring from Faith Mennonite Church, Newton)

Being part of a church community has been an important part of my life for as long as I can remember. It is now time again to be a member of the church I attend. I enjoy the worship services at BCMC, the music, and the variety of inspiring sermons. I hope to be a contributing member of a church community with whom I share like values.

Aaron Tschetter (transferring from Hutterthal Mennonite Church, Freeman, SD)

I grew up attending Hutterthal Mennonite Church in Freeman, SD. This is where I founded the basis of my Christian life and my love of God. At this church I also learned the importance of community and service. I attended Freeman Academy (a private Christian Middle and High school) from 2003-2010. At FA, I learned more about the Bible, Church History, and living a Christian life. I was baptized on my 16th birthday on June 10, 2007. I also worked at Swan Lake Christian Camp in H.S. as a Counselor and as a Staff Person during my years at Bethel College. All these experiences have led me to a closer relationship with God and a better understanding of my own personal beliefs. All my life I have been a part of close-knit and caring Christian communities, Bethel College Mennonite Church has become my new community where I feel like I am a part of a congregation that strives to be Christ-like and cares about me.
