Faith Statements of those being baptized today:

Katherine Lamp

Bethel College Mennonite Church has been my home church since my family and I moved here in 2003. Many of the people in the church have helped me grow as a person in my faith and studies. I am eager to continue to learn more about myself in faith and also about my church family as I take this important step in my life. Growing up in BCMC has shown me how to accept God into my life and continue that outside of church. Throughout my life at BCMC I have participated in numerous things such as VBS, choir, bells, and youth group. I would like to become a part of the church that has become such a big part of my life. As I grow older, I would like to learn more about Jesus' way and attempt to shape my life around his acceptance, caring, love, and compassionate lifestyle. Many relationships have led to my choosing to become baptized in BCMC. My family, my mentor, all of Rocky Mountain Mennonite Camp, and all of the pastors whom I have had the privilege of knowing. They have all shaped me into the person who I am today, someone who wants to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. I look forward to becoming a member in BCMC at giving back to the church. I also look forward to continuing to grow in my relationship with Jesus at BCMC.

Anjela Rodriguez

My family and I moved to Newton in 2005. We started going to Casa Betainia, a little church right behind First Mennonite Church. As the years went by, things started to change. It felt like we didn't belong. It felt like we weren't receiving the word of God that my family wanted, that we needed. We didn't feel like we were a family the way a church should feel. We wanted to feel together as one; we wanted a place where we could feel comfortable. That's when two angels named Orvin and Janet Voth showed us Bethel College Mennonite Church. No words can express the love I have for them: they are my family. My family wasn't in the best spot. A lot happened over the years, bad stuff, but through those years I never lost faith. I remember nights where I would be asking why certain things were happening. I was lost but I knew God was with us, with me. During these times, we already knew Janet and Orvin and they helped us out. They are a very important part of my life. They helped my family get out of some bad spots and we grew together as a family. I truthfully say my family wouldn't be where we are now if it wasn't for God and Orvin and Janet. When I first arrived at BCMC I felt out of place, but I noticed people started to talk to me; they actually made an effort so speak to me. I saw that they cared and I have seen something that I never saw at any other churches I've attended before. I see people, different in many ways, come together as one to praise the amazing man upstairs.

This Week at BCMC: July 10-July 17, 2016

I want to be baptized at BCMC because everyone showed me that we can be different and still come together as a family and I want to make God my Savior. I want to show God that I am willing to give everything I have to him; To be a follower. I feel baptism is my next step because I want to advance in my faith and grow in my spirituality. I know every time I read the Bible I find something new and I learn different things. I have many people around me who have helped me and encouraged me to get baptized. Orvin and Janet Voth, my parents, my pastor, my mentor, my friends all show me love and help shape who I am today. I feel being baptized will help me and will shape my future in a great way. I will have a more spiritual connection with God. I will be more involved with the church. I will learn more about Jesus. I know we are all put here for a purpose, to help spread peace and God's love.

Mercedes Rodriguez

I'm ready to be baptized. I always wondered why I wasn't baptized like my oldest sister, so I asked my dad. He told me he wanted to wait until I was old enough to have a say in what my religion was because it was up to me. He did present me to God to have him watch over me. Since coming to BCMC I've enjoyed going to church, which I've never really felt before. I want to continue to feel that.

I started thinking about being baptized when I went to convention in Kansas City last summer. That's when I started learning more about Mennonites and I loved what I learned. I was happy and I wanted to become Mennonite since then. I never went to anyone for help with baptism because my dad has always told me it's my choice and not to let anyone decide for me. I choose to become a Mennonite and be a part of Bethel College Mennonite Church.

Since coming to BCMC I've had the idea of going to college at Bethel College and wanting to become a member of church. There is no other church I would want to attend besides Bethel College Mennonite Church.

Maggie Dungan joining BCMC

Throughout my life, my family has attended several churches of different Christian denominations. I found a personal connection with the Mennonite faith the first time we attended a Mennonite church, Lorraine Avenue Mennonite Church in Wichita. Camp Mennoscah has played an important role in the development of my faith, leading me to identify myself as a Mennonite. I have experienced more than one awe-inspiring moment at camp, all of which have shaped me, both as a Christian and also a follower of God. After a particularly ground-breaking and out of body experience at camp during the summer of 2014, the Spirit moved me to decide that I was ready to be baptized.

I have been raised to believe that when the Spirit calls, you answer without hesitation. For this reason, I did not want to wait to be baptized at a future scheduled time. In the Bible, people were baptized by other baptized believers in rivers, the only qualification being that they were willing to commit their lives to God. I found great meaning in this, so I chose to be baptized in the river at Camp Mennoscah. A family friend, who is also an ordained minister, led my baptismal service. My dad, (a baptized believer, Christian, and Mennonite) baptized me in the river. My “cloud of witnesses” included close family and friends. It was and always will be a profoundly moving, spiritual experience for me.

My family began attending BCMC in August of 2014 and my parents became members in November 2014. This church has not only provided space for me to continue shaping and expressing my faith, but has also provided me with a community of people who lift me up and support me in all areas of life. I feel it is important I also join BCMC as a member because of the huge role this church has played in my life the past couple years. I am extremely grateful for the many people here who make this church feel like home. I would not be who I am today without their love and support. I look forward to continued involvement in this church, sharing my spiritual gifts, and growing as a follower of Jesus Christ with my family and friends here at BCMC.

Maggie Dungan will be a senior and enjoys choir, working out, and working at Prairie Harvest. Maggie loves visiting Estes Park and Manitou Springs in Colorado with her family. One of the things she likes about BCMC Youth Group is the feeling of community and family. Maggie's future career plans are to attend K-State to become a family therapist.

Christa Kondziola's ideal day would be spent in a room full of puppies. When she's not playing with her own puppy, she enjoys playing tennis and hanging out with friends. Her spirit animal is also a dog, because they make her happy. Christa is currently in 10th grade and would love to pursue something in the vet field.

Katherine Lamp is a junior who is involved in golf, band, and musicals. She loves the community and comradery of the BCMC Youth Group, and especially enjoys getting together every week. Katherine wants to become a High School math teacher.

Anjela Rodriguez is a sophomore who loves to dance, sleep, draw, listen to music, and hang with her best friend. When asked about her spirit animal, she said, "A sloth, because I'm slow but when I get scared, I'm fast." Anjela admires her mom because she is a strong person that puts others before herself.

Christian Rodriguez is a senior and loves that the youth group and church are very accepting. Christian loves to wrestle, golf, play the saxophone, and bike. His spirit animal is a lion because it is very fast and strong. If he could do anything for a day, he would test out different muscle cars on a track. Christian would like to become a welder and jet engineer.

Mercedes Rodriguez is a junior and likes BCMC because the people are welcoming and nice. She loves singing, drawing, listening to music, and napping. Her spirit animal is a sloth—she would spend all day sleeping if she could. Mercedes would love to go to college, travel, and become an archeologist.

Olvin Romero will be a student at Bethel College this fall. His interests are soccer, soccer, ceramics, and soccer. If he could do anything for a day, he would spend it with Real Madrid, a soccer team from Spain. Olvin's spirit animal is a lion because they have so much power.

Jarett Sheriff is a senior who loves herpetology and art. His spirit animal is a monitor lizard because it is smart and the king of its domain. Jarett admires Al Cortez because he has worked with venomous snakes for 26+ years. He loves visiting his grandparents' cabin and hanging out with his friends at the creek.

Zoe Siemens is a junior who loves participating in swimming, making art, going to school, and visiting Colorado every summer. Zoe's spirit animal is an ant eater because even though people laugh at ant eaters and think less of them, they are still one of the coolest animals. She admires Anjela because she is hilarious and never fails to make Zoe smile.

Cheyenne Temple is a freshman. Her hobbies are longboarding, football, swimming, listening to music, sleeping, and eating. Cheyenne appreciates learning from the activities in youth group, and how members are open, understanding, and easy to talk to. Cheyenne admires Anjela because she's patient, kind, beautiful, respectful, and knows her priorities. Cheyenne would love to become a photographer or translator someday.

Elizabeth Tran has grown up at BCMC since Pre-K and this church has been like a second family for her. She loves the warm and welcoming environment and that people are always greeted with smiles. Her hobbies are piano and ceramics, and she works as an aide at Latchkey. Elizabeth will be a freshman at Bethel College this fall and wants to become a pediatrician. If she had a free day and money was no concern, she'd go on an adventure!

Laura Tran is a senior who enjoys piano and soccer. Laura said, "I always look forward to Wednesday nights, even if all that we do is just sit in uncomfortable silence. We're a welcoming bunch." Laura plans to become a pharmacist someday. If money were no object, she would spend time traveling.

Jonathan Baloo Voth will be a senior and is an avid mountain biker, photographer, swimmer, and artist. He plans to continue his passions by becoming an art teacher and photographer on the side. Jon was the official photographer for the youth group Community Week. If Jon became an animal, he would choose a bird because they can fly and be free.

In addition to Pastor John Tyson, 2015-2016 Youth Group sponsors are: Ben Lichti, Nancy Mueller, Bethany Schrag, and Tim Schrag
