

Translations for Sanctus and O Nata lux

Sanctus

Sanctus. Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth!
Pleni suni coeli et terra gloria tua.

Osanna in excelsis.

Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

O Nata lux

O nata lux de lumine,
Jesu redemptor saeculi,
dignare clemens supplicum

laudes preces que sumere.

Qui carne quondam contegi

dignatus es pro perditis,
nos membra confer effici,
tui beati corporis.

O born light of light,
Jesus, redeemer of the world,
mercifully deem worthy and accept the praises and prayers of your supplicants.
Thou who once deigned to be clothed in flesh
for the sake of the lost ones,
grant us to be made members of your holy body.

Prayer Requests

Mennonite Mission Network: On this Easter Sunday, meditate on the words of Clarence Jordan, co-founder of Koinonia Farm in Georgia (a MMN SOOP placement): “The good news of the resurrection is not [only] that we shall die and go home to be with [Jesus], but that he has risen and comes home with us, bringing all his hungry, naked, thirsty, sick prisoner brothers [and sisters] with him.”

Western District Conference: Pray that congregations across WDC may embody the living presence of Christ in their communities, on this Easter Sunday and throughout the year.

This congregation: As we celebrate Jesus’ resurrection, give thanks for the hope of resurrection in the tomb-like experiences of our lives.

To request prayer or a visit, or if a family member is hospitalized, please contact the church office or a pastor so that visits and prayer support can be offered. Names of people receiving medical care are printed in the BCMC bulletin only by permission of the patient or a guardian/family-member. This is part of the caring network at BCMC, which includes support among members of Sunday school classes and small groups, as well as the Prayer Network, Visitation Team, and Caring Fund sponsored by Deacon Commission.

Bethel College Mennonite Church welcomes into fellowship and membership all persons who confess faith in Jesus Christ, without regard to their race, ethnic background, gender, age, sexual orientation, education, ability, and other factors which give rise to discrimination and marginalization.

REMEMBERING 50 years of the MCC Relief Sale in Kansas

With a theme of “Extreme World Makeover,” the 2006 sale was marked by many firsts. The Kansas State Fair’s master plan allowed use of the same buildings as in 2005. Sunflower South saw the first “Silent Auction,” a great success. In Sunflower North, the MCC booth expanded to include school kit assembly. The Domestic Arts building became home to “Caps Central.” The Pretty Prairie Youth Group provided carnival games in the Tech Building. A change in state policy led organizers to buy two construction trailers to convert into kitchens for the Domestic Arts Building. $450,000 went to MCC. With a theme of “Praising God Through Service,” this year’s Kansas Mennonite Relief Sale is April 13-14.

- My Coins Count campaign continues through next Sunday, April 8. Parents, encourage your children to add to their banks this week and bring them next Sunday to be collected during the children’s conversation.   - Sign up sheets for baked goods and volunteer opportunities are on tables under the balcony today. Visit and sign up often!
  - This is the last Sunday to sign Keith Sprunger’s book of BCMC’s history which will be placed in the time capsule to be opened at the 75th KMRS in 2043. You will find it on a table under the balcony.
  - Craft items donated to the sale by BCMC members will be displayed April 8. Bring items that morning and they may be left at the church; BCMC liaisons will take them to the sale.
