

BCMC Library

New Books—Summer 2017

Biography

- B Schmidt Schmidt, Melvin D. Wholly Holey Holy, 2016. This is a reverent (and not so reverent) recollection of Melvin Schmidt's life as a Reverend.
- B Stoesz Stoesz, Edgar, Finding My Way: A Harvest of Memories, 2014. This is Edgar's memoir.
- B Wendel Spencer-Wendell, Susan, Until I Say Good-Bye, 2014. The story of a woman battling terminal illness.

Non-Fiction

- 232 Ha Halberstam, David, The Children, 1998. Halbersham, a young reporter in the 60's telling of events in Nashville, Tennessee.
- 232.1 Le Lewis, John, March Book One, 2013. This book is telling about the Civil Rights Movement in the 60's in comic book style.
- 232.1 Le Lewis, John, March Book Two, 2014. This book is telling about the Civil Rights Movement in the 60's in comic book style.
- 232.1 Le Lewis, John, March Book Three, 2016. This book is telling about the Civil Rights Movement in the 60's in comic book style.
- 242.2 Du Duerksen, Carol, et.al. Now It Springs Up, 2007. With Carol, Michelle Hershberger and Laurie Oswald Robinson write spiritual insights for everyday.
- 248 La Lamott, Anne, Small Victories, 2014. Essays about faith, family and community.

- 289.7 Go Goossen, Benjamin W. Chosen Nation, 2017. A history of Mennonites in the 19th and 20th centuries as they deal with the militaristic German Nationalism.
- 289.7 Ja Janzen, Waldemar, Growing Up in Turbulent Times, 2007. Waldemar's memoirs of Soviet oppression, being a refugee in Germany, and being an immigrant in Canada.
- 289.7 Qu Quiring, David M. The Mennonite Old Colony Vision, 2003. This is the story of the Old Colony Mennonites who left Canada for Mexico in the 1920's and what has happened in today's world.
- 289.7 Ra Ratzlaff, Gerhard. One Body-Many Parts: The Mennonite Churches in Paraguay, 2001. A history of the Mennonite church in Paraguay from 1927 to the present.
- 332.4 Mi Miller, Lynn. The Power of Enough: Finding Contentment, 2007. This is an updated version of the book written with the same title in 2003.
- 971.8 De DeFede, Jim. The Day the World Came to Town: 9/11 in Gander, Newfoundland, 2002. Thirty-eight jetliners were bound for the US on 9/11. As the US airspace was closed they were forced to land in Gander, Newfoundland. The story is one of hospitality, caring, and love.

Fiction

- F Kelly Kelly, Martha Hall. Lilac Girls, 2016. This book is based on the stories of three women during WWII and their interaction with the underground resistance movement, the male-dominated realm of Nazi secrets and power, and the concentration camp for women.
- F Toibin Toibin, Colm. Brooklyn, 2009. This is a coming of age story of a girl in Ireland during WWII and it tells of her life when she has a chance to come to the US.

Children's

- E Disney Disney. The Prince and the Pauper, 1993. An old story told for children.
- E Duerksen Duerksen, Carol. Slickfester Dude Tells Bedtime Stories, 1997. These are life lessons from our animal friends.
- E Eastman Eastman, P. D. Go, Dog, Go, 1961. A replacement for an older copy.
- E Hall Hall, Michael. Red A Crayon's Story, 2015. Being different isn't easy but a new perspective helps.

Junior

- JF Neufeld Neufeld, Jacob. Yahk. This is an unpublished story written for Jacob's grandchildren. It is a compelling book about a prehistoric clan of Eskimos dealing with issues such as God, free will, love, eternity, and death. It is as compelling for adults as children.
- JF Stilton Stilton, Geronimo, Thea Stilton and the Mystery on the Orient Express, 2016. A junior high mystery.
- JF Stilton Stilton, Geronimo, Thea Stilton and the Mountain of Fire, 2006. Another Stilton mystery.
- JF Stilton Stilton, Geronimo, The Treasure of Easter Island, 2013. Another Stilton mystery.