

BCMC Library Updates October 2016

1. Your patience was appreciated when the library was closed this summer to remove asbestos tile and install new carpet. We packed, moved and unpacked 120 boxes of books. THANKS to all who helped with this project.
2. CD's and DVD's
 - Sunday morning worship and some special events are recorded and are available for check-out for one or two weeks.
 - DVD's and/or a study guide are on the shelves with these books.
Being Mortal, 362.1 Ga
Fierce Goodbye, 248.8 Car
Making Friends among the Taliban,
958.1 Lar
Praying in Color-Workshop Ed. 248.3 Mac
Praying in Color-Kids Teaching,
CH 248.3 Mac
Saving Grace-The Redemption of Sara Cain
F Lew
Second Suns, 617.7 Re
The New Jim Crow, 364.9 Al
 - Other DVD's were given to the WDC Resource Library. Remaining DVD's & CD's are "freebies" and available in our library.

3. Close to Home is a series of free brochures dealing with 21 current social issues. Bullying, eating disorders, electronic addiction, elder abuse and more are included. Stop by to see the entire list in this series published by Menno Media.
4. Literature rack – following items:
 - a. Current issue of The Mennonite, check-out for one-week.
 - b. The First :30 Seconds, a booklet for greeters to review
 - c. Timbrel, magazine published by Mennonite Women USA
 - d. BCMC Pictorial Directory 2015, two copies are available for check-out
5. Missio Dei Series, published by Mennonite Mission Network has 23 pamphlets providing history of overseas and domestic mission work. The work of Janet Stucky in Benin is the latest addition to this series and all are available for check-out.
6. Have you seen the "Suggestion Box" in our library? We welcome your ideas for new books.

Mission Statement of BCMC Library

The library of BCMC is one of the ministries of our church, for all ages. We offer resources for personal and family reading enjoyment, for strengthening Christian education, for encouraging spiritual growth, and for promoting peace, justice and dignity for all people and the earth.

