

BCMC Library_New Books—June 2018

Biography

- B Cantu Cantu, Francisco, The Line Becomes a River, 2018. After a stint with the Border Patrol, Cantu must struggle how to deal with immigration.
- B Kolata Kolata, Gina, Mercies in Disguise, 2017. This is a story of a family who took matters into their own hands when medicine could not help.

Non-Fiction

- 277.3 Ha Hart, Drew G. I., Trouble I've Seen, 2016. Understanding racism in our Christian life from a theologian and blogger hosted by Christian Century.
- 291.6 Cl Claassen, William, Alone in Community, 2000. William Claassen offers an engaging and reflective description of monastic life as practiced in eleven countries.

Fiction

- F Laureano Laureano, Carly, Five Days in Skye, 2013. A novel that is about a woman consumed with her job and getting ahead, yet life leads in other directions.
- F Smiley Smiley, Jane, The All-True Travels and Adventures of Lidie Newton, 1998. Set in the 1850's, Lidie moves to Kansas becoming an important person in making Kansas a Free State.

Junior and Easy

- JF Martin Martin, Rafe, Birdwing, 2005. This story weaves fairy tale into fiction with six brothers being turned in swans and then returned into human form except for one brother that must live with being different by having a wing for an arm. Being different is difficult.
- F Martin Martin, Rafe, The Brave Little Parrot, 1998. When a raging fire sends frightened animals away, the brave little parrot remains to face the fear.
- F Stewart Stewart, Sarah, The Library, 1995. Elizabeth must find a solution for her huge number of books.